Bermuda Insider Tips

FLORA DUFFY, Pro triathlete & Olympian

FAVOURITE RUNNING ROUTE—BERMUDA BOTANICAL GARDENS:

“I ran here a lot when I was a teenager. My running coach at the time worked at Bermuda Botanical Gardens, and together we came up with quite a few routes. He jokes that ‘The Duffy’ route is still used today with some of his athletes.”

SHIONA TURINI,
Fashionista

FAVOURITE BERMUDIAN DISH:

“Codfish and potato, of course! I eat it in a very Bermudian way—mashed up with egg sauce and tomato sauce, and avocado on the side.”

NICOLE GOLDEN,
Owner of the Urban Cottage

FAVOURITE SUNSET
LOCATION:

Gibbs' Hill Lighthouse in Southampton Parish is my favourite. You can go up there in the evening with a friend and a bottle of wine, sit on the grass and see the most amazing sunsets.

JASON SUKDEO,
DJ & Event Promoter

BEST PLACE TO PARTY:

“There are some fantastic opportunities for some beautiful days. Be sure to visit the caves or grab a mountain bike and ride the trails. And save up some energy for the nightlife. Make your way to Front Street in Hamilton and trust me, the party will find you.”

KRISTIN WHITE,
Owner of The Book Cellar & Tour Guide

PERFECT DAY:

“My perfect day is riding my bike all around St. George's. I'd stop off at Fort St. Catherine, take a swim or dip my feet in the water, then lay and read for a bit before heading to a restaurant on the harbour to enjoy a glass of wine and dinner. I may or may not brush the grass and sand off first!”

Culture & Heritage Itinerary

With more than 400 years of fascinating history packed into 21 square miles, Bermuda is alluring for lovers of history and culture.

On the East End of the island, discover history and culture in the old town of St. George and historic homes that give a glimpse into the fascinating life of Bermuda's earliest inhabitants.

THE TOWN OF ST. GEORGE

A UNESCO World Heritage site, the Town of St. George is the oldest continuously occupied town of English origin in the western hemisphere. Wander down cobblestone alleys and lanes, visit historic homes and watch reenactments of Bermuda's colonial past.

CARTER HOUSE

Thought to be the oldest home in Bermuda, the Carter House on St. David's Island was constructed in 1640 by descendants of Christopher Carter, one of the island's original settlers. The museum here features exhibits on whaling, farming and early Bermudian life.

TUCKER HOUSE

Constructed in the 1750s, the Tucker House became the home of Colonel Henry Tucker in 1775—the same year the Colonel planned the legendary Gunpowder Plot, which helped win the American Revolution.

VERDMONT HISTORIC HOUSE & GARDEN

Virtually unchanged since it was constructed 300 years ago, the Verdmont Historic House & Gardens is one of the prizes of Bermudian architecture. Stroll the grounds to see an assortment of herbs, old roses and fruit trees. As a bonus, enjoy a sweeping view of the South Shore.

Holiday Events

From a decked-out colonial-era town to Boxing Day wrapped in the beat of gombey dancing, Bermudian traditions bring a magical island touch to the holidays.

CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICES

Bermuda is home to many historic churches, so you'll have your pick if you want to celebrate the holiday in a sacred space. For an especially atmospheric Christmas Eve, visit St. Peter's Church in the Town of St. George.

CHRISTMAS DAY ON THE BEACH

It might be a little naughty, but it's hard to resist: while your friends are shovelling their sidewalks on Christmas morning, you can send them a selfie from one of Bermuda's most beautiful spots, Elbow Beach. Every December 25, hundreds of residents and visitors gather here for a festive Bermuda holiday celebration complete with champagne, food, music and good vibes.

BOXING DAY

The holidays in Bermuda are big for the Combeys, the traditional troupes of colourfully attired dancers that have been a tradition on the island since the 1800s. On Christmas Day, Boxing Day (the UK's public holiday on December 26) and New Year's Day, the streets transform into a stage with people dancing to the infectious sound of drums, beer bottle fifes and tin whistles. On these days, gombey dancers can be found on most of Bermuda's main streets—just listen for the music.

Transportation

Whether by bus, bike, ferry, scooter, taxi—and now a Twizy, Bermuda is safe and easy to explore.

Buses and ferries cover the island all year long and, since this is how most locals get around, they're a great way to get a taste of Bermuda's warm, welcoming culture. Rent a scooter and zip around to hidden gems, or hop on a ferry to see the island from the water as you get to where you're going.

BUSES

The island's buses are frequent, plentiful and service most areas of interest. You can't miss them—they're pink with blue stripes. The island has 11 bus routes and 14 bus zones. Most buses leave from the Central Terminal on Washington Street, next to City Hall in Hamilton. Download a copy of the bus schedule, from www.GoToBermuda.com.

FERRIES

Four public ferry routes offer a picturesque alternative for travel around the island. All ferries depart from the Ferry Terminal on Front Street in Hamilton.

TWIZY

Visitors can now explore the island by renting electric two-seat Twizy vehicles from Current Vehicles Bermuda at locations including the Hamilton Princess & Beach Club. Twizy stands for "twin" and "easy" designed by Renault's Formula One racing team and can travel up to 50 miles on a single charge. The fleet of 25 electric carts are available on a first-come, first-served basis, visitors must be 18 years and older with a valid driver's license. For more information visit www.currentvehicles.com.

TAXIS

Taxis provide reliable transportation for direct point-to-point travel or by-the-hour sightseeing. Raise your hand to hail one and off you go!

SCOOTERS & BICYCLES

Motor scooters (mopeds) and pedal bikes (bicycles) are ideal for exploring the island's winding streets and for stopping in at a lay-by (a.k.a. scenic overlook) to take in the ocean views. It's a truly Bermudian way of getting around.
