Message from the Governor

I am delighted to be the Patron of this the 44th Annual Bermuda Festival of the Performing Arts.

The theme of the 2019 programme is Empowerment of Women and this theme will be blended into all the performances featured during the Festival. From The Manhattan Transfer, to Bermudian artists like Rebecca Faulkenberry, Gita Blakeney-Saltus and Heather Nova, to the 2nd Annual On Stage Competition and much, much more. There is plenty to experience and enjoy at this year's Festival and I would encourage both residents and visitors alike to do their best to see one or more of the performances.

The Festival will once again be conducting their successful Outreach and Scholarship programme which last year saw opportunities for over 2000 students to participate in one or more of the Festival's outreach sessions. And, as of January 2019, the Outreach and Scholarship activities will be year-round!

Finally, no Festival can be successful without the dedication of its administrators, production team and volunteers. I salute all the people behind the scenes who make this celebration of the arts something of which Bermuda can be proud. I send my best wishes to all involved for a successful Festival.

Governor and Commander-in-Chief

Message from the Premier

The Bermuda Festival is a highlight of the island's musical entertainment calendar with an annual star-studded line-up of performing talent from Bermuda and overseas.

I am pleased that your Outreach & Scholarship programmes have impacted thousands of Bermudian students, providing entertainment, education and inspiration.

I note with interest your increased efforts to grow the Festival, including a comprehensive Membership Programme, new levels of sponsorships and modern strategies designed to ensure that the programming fits with the cultural and demographic makeup of the island.

With Outreach and Scholarship activities now scheduled to be promoted year-round, the 44th Annual Bermuda Festival is at the beginning of a new and vibrant future as one of Bermuda's cherished and eagerly anticipated cultural events.

I wish you great success for the year's events.

Premier and Minister of Finance

Welcome to the 44th Annual Bermuda Festival!

The Board and Management of the Festival is proud to announce that the theme of Festival 2019 is: Empowerment of Women! As you will see from the exciting lineup of local and international acts, the weaving of this theme has been an exciting part of our programming. We have also implemented a year-round Outreach and Scholarship programme through our new Shakespeare On The Rock series, started a membership programme and instituted the inaugural Bermuda Festival Edgar Humann Award of Merit – to honour those individuals who have been instrumental in bringing performing arts to thousands of Bermudians throughout the years. Congratulations to Ian Davidson who will be receiving the first award.

From international acts as legendary and diverse as The Manhattan Transfer and Chaka Khan, to internationally recognised Bermudian artists such as Heather Nova and Rebecca Faulkenberry, the programme is, as always, designed to Entertain, Educate and Inspire.

Now is the best time to book your seats for the 44th Annual Bermuda Festival!

8:00pm

Mid Ocean Amphitheatre, Fairmont Southampton

OPENING ACT: Gita Blakeney-Saltus and Sheila Smith

44th Annual Bermuda Festival opens with the 10-time GRAMMY® Award-winning, legendary jazz vocal group The Manhattan Transfer. Founded in 1969 and signed to Atlantic Records by the legendary head of the label, Ahmet Ertegun, the group released their self-titled debut in 1975. The critical praise and commercial success of the group's first seven studio albums could hardly have prepared them for the monumental success of their 1985 album Vocalese (12 GRAMMY® Award nominations that year). As one of the most important and innovative vocal groups in the history of popular music, The Manhattan Transfer accrued worldwide sales in the millions and are veterans of sold-out world tours. Along with Chick Corea, TMT has recently been awarded The National Music Council's American Eagle Award at the NAMM show in Nashville and released a new album entitled The Junction. Join us as we prepare to give a warm Bermuda welcome to The Manhattan Transfer!

Nina Simone - Four Women

PLAY

TUESDAY, JANUARY 29TH,
WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 30TH and
THURSDAY, JANUARY 31ST

7:30pm

St. Paul's AME Church, Hamilton

Directed by multiple award-winning poet, playwright and director Marcus Gardley and starring Broadway veteran Harriett D. Foy as Nina Simone, this play with music written by Christina Ham is one of the most talked about and produced plays in recent years. It's September 16, 1963. The day after the bombing of the 16th Street Baptist Church in Birmingham, Alabama. This event led Nina Simone to shift her career from artist to artist-activist as she believed, "An artist's responsibility is to reflect the times." Nina Simone - Four Women uses the framework of one of her most blistering songs – "Four Women" – to give voice to a group of women who suffered from self-hatred due to the different hues of their skin: Aunt Sarah, Sephronia, Sweet Thing and Peaches. This production includes some of Nina Simone's most popular Civil Rights anthems such as "Mississippi Goddam," "Go Limp," and "Young, Gifted, and Black" to look at an artist and the women around her as their journey leads them down a path of discovery and healing.

"Many young people today aspire to be singers, and that's wonderful. But songwriting seems to have taken a back seat. It's great to be a good singer, but even better to also be able to write your own songs. A song can tell your story, a song can tell your truth, a song can set you free. I want to encourage young Bermudian women to find their voices through songwriting."

As part of her show Heather will introduce and accompany the winner of the young songwriter competition – part of our 2nd Annual On Stage Competition.

The Queen's Six

VOCAL / A CAPELLA

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 25TH and TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 26TH

7:30pm

Earl Cameron Theatre, City Hall

You may remember them from the recent Royal Wedding but The Queen's Six were established in 2008, the 450th anniversary of the accession of Queen Elizabeth I, from whom they take their name. They will be bringing Bermuda the finest in Castle-based male voice a cappella! Based at Windsor Castle, all the members of The Queen's Six are also Lay Clerks of St. George's Chapel, whose homes lie within the Castle walls. The Chapel Choir, which consists of boy trebles and twelve professional adult male singers, perform some eight services a week, as well as at private and state occasions, often before the Royal Family. Now Dan, Tim, Nick, Dom, Andrew and Simon have come together to bring their unique style of entertainment to a much wider audience. Their repertoire extends far beyond the reach of the choir stalls: from austere early chant, florid Renaissance polyphony, lewd madrigals and haunting folk songs, to upbeat jazz and pop arrangements. In keeping with our Empowerment of Women theme, The Queen's Six will present a very special programme specifically curated for the Bermuda Festival!

FAMILY ENTERTAINMENT /
COMEDY

FRIDAY, MARCH 1ST and SATURDAY, MARCH 2ND

7:30pm

Mid Ocean Amphitheatre, Fairmont Southampton

Get ready to dress up and walk on the red carpet!

Every song is fresh. Every scene is new. Every night is different. It's all improvised and it's all funny.

The New York Times calls Broadway's Next Hit Musical "Hilarious!" Time Out NY says "At last! A musical of, for, and by the people." The hilarious Broadway's Next Hit Musical is the only unscripted theatrical awards show. Master improvisers gather made up, hit song suggestions from the audience and create a spontaneous evening of music, humour, and laughter. The audience votes for its favourite song and watches as the cast turns it into a full-blown improvised musical – complete with memorable characters, witty dialogue and plot twists galore. BNHM has been seen recently at The Triad, Tribeca Film Festival and at the New York Musical Theater Festival, among many others. Under the direction of improv veterans Rob Schiffmann and Deb Rabbai, TheaterWeek hailed the show as "brilliant" and The New York Post called Broadway's Next Hit Musical "remarkable." PLAY

FRIDAY, MARCH 8TH (International Women's Day) and SATURDAY, MARCH 9TH

7:30pm

Earl Cameron Theatre, City Hall

Director Albert Cremin (Sister Act, Introducing Charles Dickens) and starring Broadway veteran and film actress Kathryn Kates (Orange Is The New Black, Seinfeld and Significant Other), Master Class portrays opera diva Maria Callas as the glamorous, commanding, larger-than-life, caustic and surprisingly funny pedagogue, holding a singing master class for students. Alternately dismayed and impressed by the students who parade before her, she retreats into recollections about the glories of her own life and career. Included in her musings are her younger years as an ugly duckling, her fierce hatred of her rivals, the unforgiving press that savaged her early performances, her triumphs at La Scala and her relationship with Aristotle Onassis. It culminates in a monologue about sacrifice taken in the name of art. This play was produced on Broadway by Robert Whitehead, Lewis Allen & Spring Sirkin.
