

DAME LOIS BROWNE-
EVANS, DBE, JP, LLB
1927–2007

- First female lawyer in Bermuda
- First black woman elected to Parliament
- First female Opposition Leader in Bermuda and in the Commonwealth
- First female Attorney General
- The co-author Bermuda's modern Constitution
- First female member of Devonshire Recreation Club
- The first PLP Minister of Legislative Affairs
- Named Bermuda's first National Hero in 2008
- A powerful orator who served in Parliament for 40 years
- Fought tirelessly for a more equitable society

DR. EDGAR FITZGERALD
GORDON
1895–1955

- Physician who came to Bermuda from Trinidad in 1924
- Member of Parliament and founding father of the labour movement
- Considered one of the most important leaders of 20th Century Bermuda
- President of the Bermuda Workers Association, the forerunner of the Bermuda Industrial Union
- Made the BWA a force for social and political change through his dynamic leadership
- Author of the landmark 1946 BWA petition, which called for end to segregation and other injustices
- Championed the cause of blacks and Bermudian workers of both races

DR. PAULLU R. N. O. B.
KAMARAKAFEGO
DR. ROOSEVELT BROWN
1932–2007

- Civil rights leader and political activist
- Played key role in the fight to abolish the property vote as founder of the Committee for Universal Adult Suffrage
- Ecological engineer
- Member of Parliament
- Worked in Vanuatu and other countries in the developing world
- Consultant to the United Nations
- First Recipient of the Human Rights Commission's Human Rights Award

SIR HENRY JAMES "JACK" TUCKER
1903–1986

- Banker and Member of Parliament
- Piloted the bill that gave Bermudian women the right to vote in Parliament in 1944
- Considered the architect of modern Bermuda
- A founding father of international business
- Oversaw Bermuda's transition to a modern democracy
- First Government Leader of Bermuda
- Founder of the United Bermuda Party

MARY PRINCE
c. 1788–

- Born into slavery in Devonshire
- Endured harsh treatment and abuse in Bermuda, Turks Island and Antigua
- Fled from her master in London in 1828
- Her groundbreaking autobiography, The History of Mary Prince, was published in London in 1831
- The first British woman to publish a slave narrative
- The narrative is the only first-hand account of slavery by a Bermudian
- Is regarded internationally as an unsung heroine of the abolition movement

GLADYS MISICK MORRELL
1888–1969

- Got her start as a suffragette as an activist in the UK
- Nursed wounded soldiers in France during the First World War
- Founder of the Bermuda Woman Suffragette Society
- Led the 25-year battle for women's voting rights in Bermuda
- Fought for better health care and college scholarships for women
- Co-founder of the district nursing system
- Donated land now known as Gladys Morrell Nature Reserve as open space

SIR EDWARD RICHARDS,
Kt., CBE
1908–1991

- Came to Bermuda from British Guiana in 1930 to teach at The Berkeley Institute
- Challenged segregation as editor of the Bermuda Recorder
- Fought to end social, racial and political injustice as a lawyer and Member of Parliament
- Bermuda's first black leader and Premier
- First black man in Bermuda to receive a knighthood
- Was Premier when the Island was rocked by the assassination of Governor Sir Richard Sharples
- Negotiated changes to the Constitution that led to new titles and names: Premier, MP and Cabinet

THE HON. SIR
JOHN W. SWAN, KBE, JP
1935

- The Distinction of being the longest serving Premier of Bermuda.
- Successfully completed the negotiations of the United States and Bermuda Tax Convention.
- Negotiated a treaty between the United States and United Kingdom that would benefit Bermuda by establishing the Island as a major Offshore Financial Centre.
- Founder of John W. Swan Agency, a real estate development, savings and loan company.
- Helped to modernize the architectural landscape of the City of Hamilton.
- A real estate developer, political luminary and philanthropist.

NATIONAL HEROES DAY

GOVERNMENT OF BERMUDA

Department of Community and Cultural Affairs

PROUD TO BE BERMUDIAN

"Truth is there is more to us...A strength that's at the core of us"