The Pillars of Girl (Em)Power:

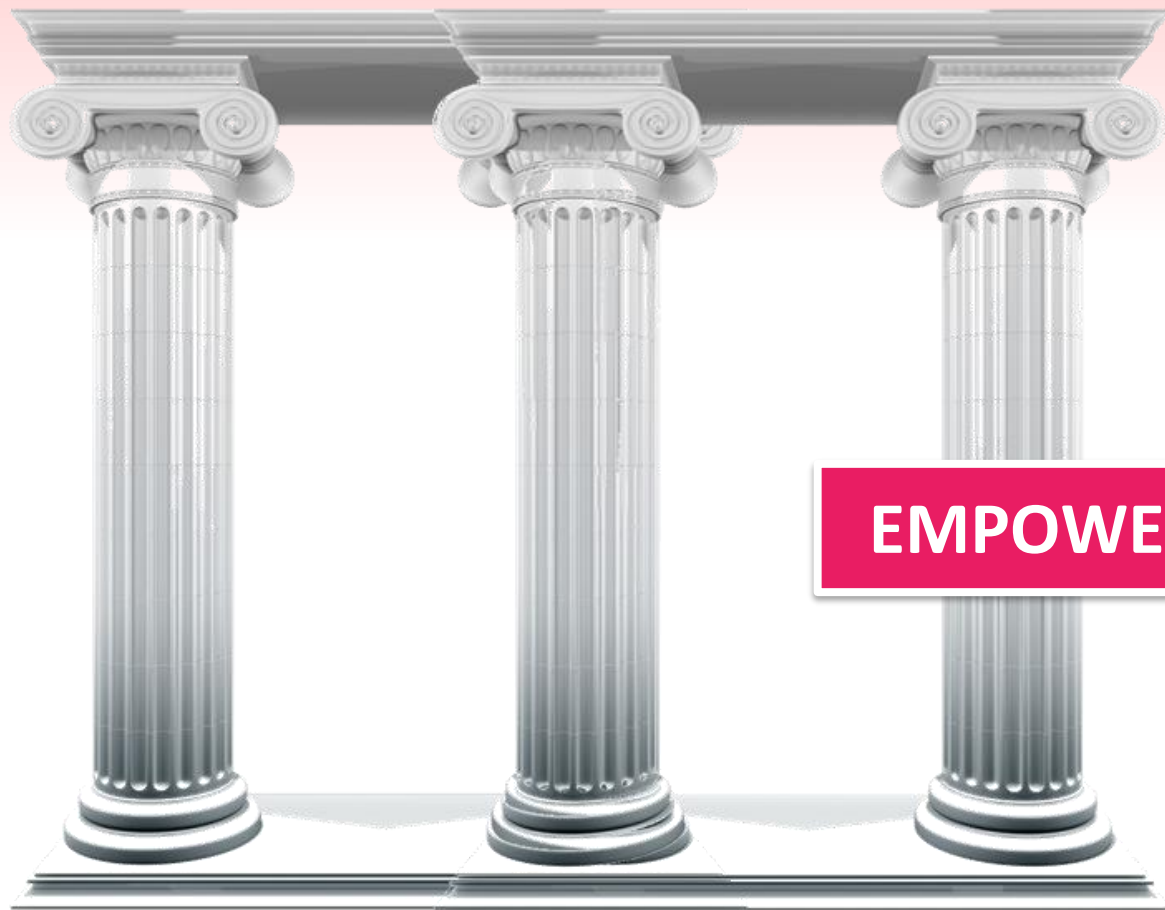

EDUCATION

Having a good educational foundation is very important, so we want to create a space that allows women to seek advice on all things relating to education.

Services we look to provide:

- Homework clubs for middle schoolers
- Community education classes
- College searches and application assistance
- Scholarship application assistance
- Resume writing
- Interviewing skills

EMPOWERMENT

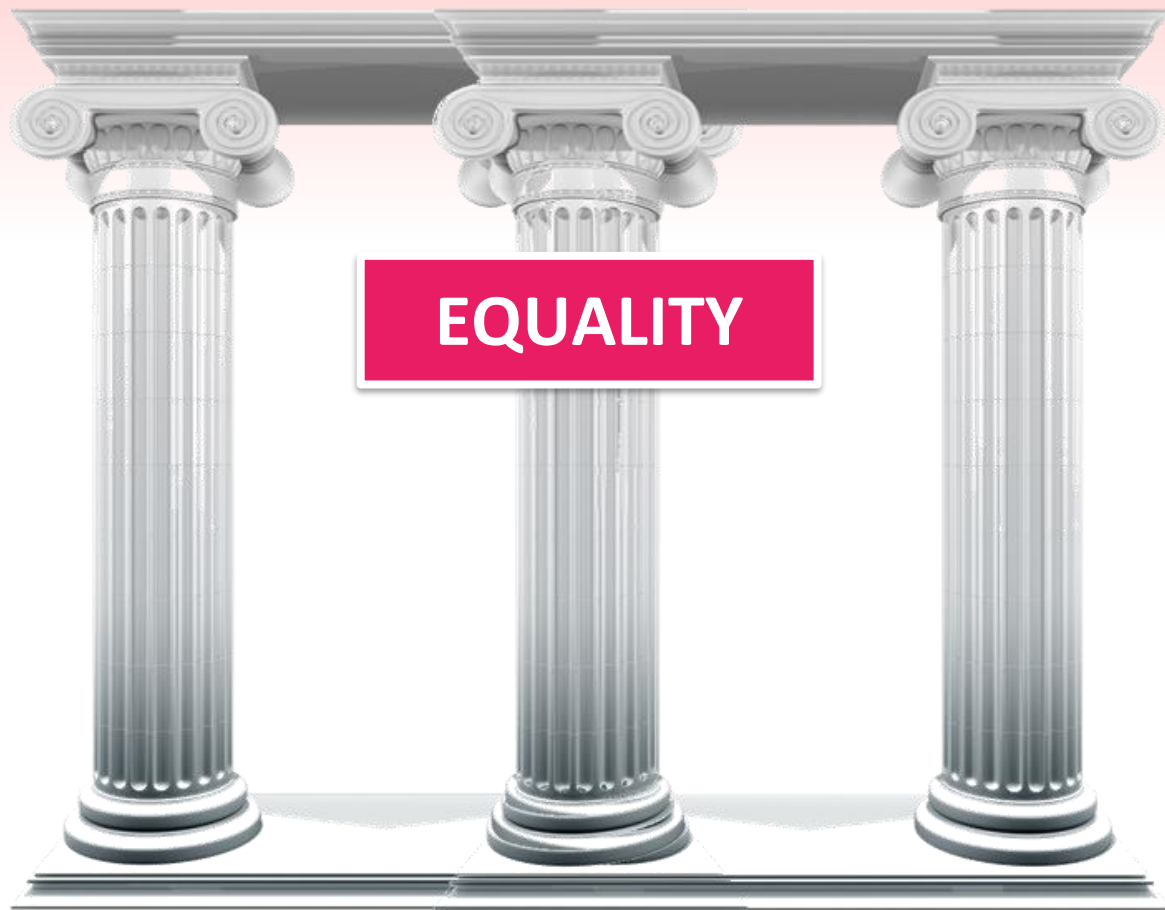

Our audience:

The vulnerable population. Young women living below or on the poverty line.

Our aims:

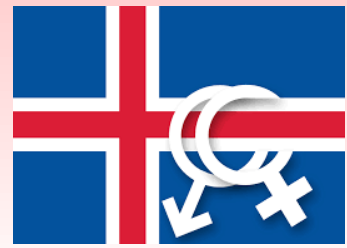

- Distribution of feminine hygienic products
- Form support groups
- Host self-care classes
- Mentorship programs
- Provide guidance and support
- Provide access to therapy

*WHEN YOU LOOK GOOD,
YOU FEEL GOOD,
YOU DO BETTER.*

EQUALITY

Our Focus:

- Sourcing legal representation in gender discrimination cases
- Push for legislative amendments
Young girls being allowed to report rape or sexual assault without parent or guardians knowledge/involvement
- Push for legislation for the formation of a Gender Equality Council
Iceland- which is the “Best place for women to live”
- Collecting and releasing information related to women

A Phased Approach

Funding

- Sourcing legal representation in gender discrimination cases
- We will seek corporate sponsorship
- Request for some financial assistance from the government
- Volunteers
Teachers, counselors, lawyers etc.
- Community service hours available to students

Communication

- Primary communication: Various social media platforms
- Quarterly E-newsletters
- Hard copies will also be available at our physical location

THERE IS NO ROOM IN
THE WORLD FOR SEXISM.

THANK YOU!
