

Proclamation

BERMUDA POST OFFICE 200 YEARS OF SERVICE TO BERMUDA

WHEREAS,

Tuesday, the ninth day of October, in the year of our Lord two thousand and twelve is proclaimed throughout the free world as World Post Day.

WHEREAS,

World Post Day is set aside by the Universal Postal Union as a day to recognize the contributions of the Postal Service to the social and economic development of the free world.

WHEREAS,

In the year of our Lord, eighteen hundred and twelve the Government of Bermuda established two post offices in the Colony.

WHEREAS,

For over two hundred years the Bermuda Post Office has been a true symbol of access to affordable communication for all residents, businesses and the Government of Bermuda.

BE IT HEREBY KNOWN THAT

I, Patrice K. Minors, JP, MP, do hereby salute the management and staff of the Bermuda Post Office, on this auspicious achievement in its history and do hereby acknowledge, with gratitude, on behalf of the Government and the people of Bermuda, the vital role the Bermuda postal service has played in the social, cultural and economic development of our Island home.

PROCLAIMED THIS DAY

Tuesday, the ninth day of October, in the year of our Lord, two thousand and twelve.

The Hon. Patrice K. Minors, JP, MP
Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry
