Why Matrix?

Watch 50 passes in 24 secs.

Matrix is a skills-based academy system for young players up to the age of 16 years, which has been endorsed and filmed by UEFA and highly rated by many international coaches and players.

Matrix was founded by Charlie Jackson – current skills development coach at Manchester City and Moorland School, Clitheroe. Charlie has previously coached at Manchester United, Blackburn Rovers, the Scottish FA and is a UEFA qualified coach.

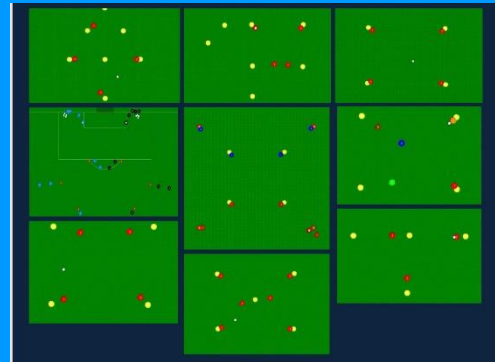

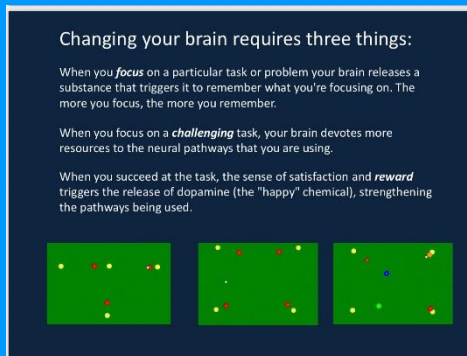

Charlie will lead the course instruction assisted by Matrix instructors from the UK and USA.

The Matrix is a paradigm shift in how footballers can and should be developed. It is a system based around thousands of carefully designed technical drills using real game scenarios in a high contextual, peer-led environment that is proven to develop superior footballing skills.

Who's the Course for?

The Foundation Course is for Parents, Coaches, PE Staff, or anyone who has a keen interest in developing the football skills of children. The course is aimed at children from the ages of 5 to 16 years old. All you need is to have an open mind.

Coaches who deliver skills-based training programs independently or as specialized skills sessions within a club will benefit from the extensive library of training drills and small sided games designed to improve individual player skills and decision making in game situations.

What do I get from the Course?

Each candidate will receive an attendance certificate stating the successful completion of the course hours, which can be used for continuing professional development & relicensing requirements.

Resources of Matrix drills and small sided games will be provided.

This certificate only gives you permission to use certain matrix drills and not to claim any Matrix rights that you are employed by the brand.

Is there further Matrix Qualifications after the Foundation Course?

Yes, there are further opportunities to gain a Matrix Level 1 Diploma. Information will be given on the Foundation course.

Neil Macintosh
Scotland Performance
Development Manager

“ The Matrix Method has been an excellent addition to our programme in Scotland. The young players love Matrix as it's exciting and challenging for them. A young player who can see ahead of their opponents will always have an advantage and those are the types of players we want playing for Scotland.
