

Civil Aviation (Licence Exemption) Order 2023

The Minister responsible for transport in exercise of the powers conferred by section 8(3)(b) of the Civil Aviation (Air Transport Licensing) Act 2007 (“the Act”) makes the following Order—

1. The following description of flights do not require an air transport licence as granted under section 9 of the Act—
 - a) A flight where a person has exclusive right to use the carrying capacity of the aircraft and where—
 - i. all the cargo to be carried on a flight is consigned by that person;
 - ii. none of the passengers on the flight is carried for a separate fare or by virtue of any other reward.
2. Nothing in this Order permits any flight that is otherwise than in accordance with the operator’s Air Operator’s Certificate.
3. This Order shall come into effect when published in the Official Gazette and remain valid until such time as the Minister determines.
